Terms and Conditions of Service

In continuation to our offer of employment with Deloitte Consulting India Private Limited (the "Employer"), please note the terms and conditions of service.

The italicized terms in these Terms and Conditions of Service are defined in Exhibit A of the Non-Disclosure, Non-Solicit and Intellectual Property Rights Assignment Agreement hereto.

Terms of Service

1. COMPLIANCE WITH INDEPENDENCE, ETHICS AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Deloitte & Touche LLP performs attest services for certain of its clients and is subject to the independence requirements of, among others, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the United States Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB), and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). These requirements mandate that certain of the Employer's employees and their relatives be independent of some or all of such attest clients and their affiliates in accordance with the policies of Deloitte LLP and its subsidiaries (the "Deloitte US Entities").

Upon joining the Employer, you will be asked to review a listing of the attest clients and the affiliates of such clients of certain of the Deloitte US Entities and disclose relationships or financial holdings that you or your relatives may have that could affect the independence of the Deloitte US Entities. Any relationships or holdings that conflict with, among other things, the requirements of the SEC, the PCAOB or the AICPA or the independence or ethics policies of the Deloitte US Entities will need to be resolved immediately. Further, you will be required to comply with these policies throughout your career with the Employer, including, when applicable, maintaining a current list of certain of your financial interests (but not their value) in the independence tracking system.

As a condition to your joining the Employer and continued employment, you are required to complete a representation regarding your understanding of, and compliance with, independence and other matters, on a periodical basis (as requested beginning on or prior to the date of you joining the Employer, annually thereafter, and upon certain changes in your role in the Employer), the details of which are provided in the independence representation. An example copy of this representation form is available for your reference on www.deloittenet.com. The representation should be made to the best of your knowledge and ability. It is your responsibility to consult on any matter should you be uncertain or have a question. You are also requested to refer to www.deloittenet.com and Independence for more information in this respect. The representations made by you will be subject to an audit and may be reviewed by Deloitte LLP representatives and shared with certain third parties. If you are selected for such an audit, you will need to submit certain personal financial records to Deloitte LLP's internal audit team. Please be assured that Deloitte LLP fully intends to keep all information obtained through the audit process confidential and secure. You hereby give your consent to Deloitte LLP to use the information provided by you for such purposes as provided in the policies regarding independence and ethics.

In the event you (i) do not cooperate or comply with the independence requirements, or (ii) do not complete the necessary representations, or (iii) make inaccurate representation(s); you may be subject to disciplinary action including and up to termination of employment with the Employer.

Please feel free to contact or consult Independence should you require any further information or if you have any specific concerns in this respect.

Wipro Limited has adopted a conflict of interest policy in respect of its employees. This policy is intended to avoid conflict between the personal interest of an employee and the interest of the company in dealing with the suppliers, customers and all other organizations or individuals doing or seeking to do business with Wipro. Noted below are a few examples of 'conflict of interest':

1. For an employee or any dependent member of his family to have an interest in any organization, which has business dealings with the company, where there is an opportunity for preferential treatment to be given or received, except where such an interest comprises securities in widely held corporations which are quoted and sold on open market or the interest is not material.
2. For an employee or any dependent member of his family to buy, sell or lease any kind of property, facilities or equipment from or to the company or any affiliate or to any company, firm or individual who is or is seeking to become the contractor, supplier or customer, except with the knowledge and consent of top management.
3. For an employee to serve as an officer, director or in any other management capacity or as consultant of another company or organization doing or seeking to do business with the company or an affiliate except with the knowledge and consent of top management.
4. For an employee to use or release to a third party any data on decisions, plans, competitive bids or any other information concerning the company, which might be prejudicial to the interest of the company.
5. For an employee or any dependent member of his family to accept commission, a share in profits or other payments, loans (other than with established banking or financial institutions), services, excessive entertainment and travel or gifts of more than nominal value from any individual or organization, doing or seeking to do business with the company.

I have read and understood the above mentioned 'Conflict of Interest' policy and I declare that there is no 'Conflict of Interest' in my employment. If in future any conflict arises, I will inform top management.
