Clubs

INTRODUCTION

There are many benefits to being involved in student clubs and organizations. Being a part of a group offers assistance with the following: career enhancement, communication skills, leadership skills, social networking, social skills, personality development, organizational and management skills, build resume, long lasting friendship and more. We have classified the clubs into three categories.

CLUB CATEGORIES

1. Academic Clubs

These clubs are typically founded on particular fields of study and Students can participate in events, forums or programs that can develop their skills and gain valuable experience. The academic clubs function under the Dean Academics and 14 clubs are registered under this category.

2. Cultural Clubs

These are clubs that bring together students who share common interests in particular hobbies. These clubs offer opportunities for students to experience both on-campus and off-campus activities that are both learning experiences and fun. The 24 cultural clubs function under Dean - Student affairs.

3. Research and Development Clubs

The clubs are founded to help students gain valuable skills in research and a proactive attitude that is demonstrated by learning more about a certain field outside of lectures and classes. The clubs under the research category function under Dean- Research and development and 4 clubs are registered under this category.

CLUB POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

I. ELIGIBILITY

All the students of Dr. N.G.P. Arts and Science College are eligible and Membership is available to all students.

II. ESTABLISHING A NEW CLUB

Registering a new club with the Student Affairs Department occurs during beginning of academic year

1. Contact Student Affairs Department to get an Application for Club Recognition Form.
2. Recruit a minimum of five currently enrolled students select a club or organization advisor. The advisor must be a faculty or staff member from an executive team.
3. Complete the form pack and return it to Student Affairs.
4. It will take up to 10 working days for the club to be approved. Once the club has been approved or denied the Student Affairs Department will contact the president to inform him/her of the status of the club/organization.

Office Bearers: Roles and Responsibilities
