From R.Saranya Assistant Professor Department of Costume Design and Fashion	The Principal	To Secretary Madam

This is to bring to your kind notice that a Children garment was designed, stitched for the customer S. Anitha and received sum of rupees 1300 for fabric and stitching. The same was deposited in college consultancy account. So I kindly request you to consider this as department consultancy and Sanction 60% from the stitching charges and fabric cost in order to pay Sum of Rupees 1017 to the student.

1. Fabric Cost = Rs.594
2. Stitching Charges = Rs.706
Total = Rs 1300

60% of the Stitching Charge = Rs.423 for the Department
40% of the Stitching Charge = Rs.282 for the College
Total amount to be Sanctioned is Rs 594 (Fabric cost) + 423 (60% from Stitching charge) = Rs. 1017

Handwritten calculations:

GYM Management System

ABSTRACT

In many Gyms the payment receipts are in paper format. So it is very difficult for both gym members to keep all the paper receipts safely and to gym trainer to keep reminding for the fee receipts. Sometimes it creates a trouble when members lost their receipts. The other problem that can be faced by a gym owner is that if he/she wants to inform any message related to working or non-working days of gym, manually sending message become difficult. If there is online application available these problems can be solved.

So, I developed an android or web application to overcome some of these issues. So this project can be helpful for both gym owner as well as for gym members. In this application all receipts are store in a digital format, so there are no issues of loosing any confidential receipts. This application will also notify the user (gym members) about their fees and also notifies the gym owner about the payment clearance. This application in future can be elaborated by providing supplement store, diet information, personal training etc.

ABSTRACT

The project entitled E Healthcare Online Consultation and Medical Subscription developed using PHP and MYSQL provides with easy to use customizable options. This system connects patients to available doctors for consultation, diagnosing of their diseases and also allows doctors to email prescription in printable format. Here, we propose a system that allows the users to get instant guidance on their health issues through an intelligent health care system online. The system allows user to share their symptoms and issues. The doctor can check the user's symptom and can reply through online. It also consists of a doctor login panel where doctor may login to the system and then see patient requests for consultations. The system then schedules those requests and serves them to doctor one after another. The doctor and patient can communicate through chatting and the patient can get their report through email. The prescription for the patient will send through email by the patient. It will basically lessen the manual work and improve the quality of maintaining records, details about the patient diseases and other information related to doctors and patients etc. The system will prove helpful to urgent cases that do not reach hospital, for emergency cases that do not have doctors in area, during late night emergencies and also for preliminary examination of patients.

ABSTRACT

An application, namely “AGRICULTURE CREDIT FARMERS”, developed using PHP as front end and MYSQL as backend, serves as a platform for movement of products from the farmers directly to the customer. This is a web based application. In this website, farmers can buy the seeds from the admin and customer can buy the required farm product from the farmer without the involvement of a middleman at its right profitable price. The main objective of this project is to help Indian farmers to make the effective cultivation by providing up-to-date information and make a path to earn more money by selling their products in different cities. This makes all the available farm products easily accessible. Hence it provides freedom of pricing and freedom of access. Through this, we can ensure that farmers can sell the product in profitable way.

ABSTRACT

The project “Ashwini- Jewellery Shop Automation System” was developed for making computerization of the records maintained in a jewellery shop. A Jewellery shop displays a wide variety of Gold Ornament, with modern and traditional collection of Ear Studs, Rings, Chains, Necklaces and Bangles from South India and North India.

Jewellery Shop is basically used built an application program which help people to find latest design of jewellery with different categories like Gold, Silver and Diamond . It is useful in the way that it makes an easier way to view products online than visiting the shops directly. He is allowed to select the item he requires according to the rate, model and price preferred by him.

It keeps its individuality among the group by its large collection of ornaments which is suited for all occasions. When a customer visits in the jewellery shop website, he/she is allowed to select the item he/she requires according to the rate, model and price preferred by him/her.

This application maintains the centralized database so that any changes at a location reflect immediately. This is an online website where the jewellery of particular jewellery shop is viewed directly online through registering with their particular website.

The user can only view the jewellery through the website and they can proceed with their process by contacting the shop. Also, this application provides an interface to user to view the details.
