There are many sources/ organizations like colleges, universities, academies, schools, various community groups, agencies, unions, religious & charitable organizations and trusts that grant scholarships. Likewise, in our Institution Dr. N.G.P. Arts and Science College, we provide valuable scholarship for the students who perform exceptionally well and meet certain criteria. In other words, it is the financial support granted to the students as a token of appreciation for their intellectual or physical ability which in turn motivates the rest of the peer group. Scholarships are forms of financial aid that add pride to the recipient which reflects their skills and abilities. Fundamentally the academic meritorious achievements in variety of other fields create the basis for the award of scholarships; however, at times, the financial status and monetary needs of a scholar or student is considered on humanitarian grounds.
