

Mr. V. Nandakumar IRS
Commissioner of Income Tax
Department of Revenue
Ministry of Finance
Government of India

Mr. V. Nandakumar, Commissioner of Income Tax in the Indian Revenue Service (IRS), Ministry of Finance, is a seasoned civil servant with nearly two decades of service. An alumnus of Dr. Ambedkar Government Arts College and Madras Presidency College, he began his career in cooperative governance and as an election observer before joining the IRS in 2005. A specialist in Cyber Forensics, he has promoted transparency and innovation in tax administration, earning the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) Best Audit Award. His contributions extend beyond administration to impactful social initiatives. He played a key role in establishing the Department of Disability Affairs (2012–13), organized the International Peace Festival to mark Gandhi's 150th birth anniversary, and conceptualized a commemorative coffee table book for Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. These initiatives reflect his commitment to inclusivity, cultural preservation, and national pride. Equally dedicated to education and mentorship, he launched Aspire to Achieve, benefiting over 2.5 lakh underprivileged students; Be the Best, guiding 20,000 civil service aspirants annually; and Up Above the Sky, empowering 20,000 teachers each year. Recognized among India Today's "Top 20 Youth Icons," he inspires youth through articles, social media, and motivational talks. Guided by his belief that "To empower a nation, we must first empower its people," he continues to drive inclusive growth and societal progress.
