GUEST PROFILE – ROY BUTLER

Mr. Roy Butler is the honourable Member for Barwon in the NSW Parliament and was earlier posted to Brisbane with the Royal Australian Regiment and was also associated in the reconnaissance sniper platoon. He completed a Postgraduate Diploma in Addictions Counselling and Group Psychotherapy. Actively participated in one-on-one counselling as a counsellor.

After completing his study, started working for Corrective Services NSW. Mr. Roy has also worked in the NSW prison system as a drug and alcohol counsellor and group psychotherapist. Subsequently he delivered and coordinated the offender management programmes across the Sydney metropolitan area and in western New South Wales. In 2004 he started to work with the Department of Ageing, Disability and Home Care as a manager of community access, where he had led teams of physiotherapists, occupational therapists, speech pathologists, psychologists and case workers across western New South Wales who all delivered services to people with intellectual disabilities.

He was appointed as regional manager of the Western Region of the NSW Police Force, a job he describe as “the best job in New South Wales”. In 2012 and 2013 he completed an Executive Master of Public Administration through the Australia and New Zealand School of Government. In the March 2019 election, Mr. Roy was elected to the NSW Parliament to represent the people of Barwon. In 2023 the people of Barwon chose him for the second time to represent them, marking a remarkable history selecting Mr. Roy as the first Independent to be elected to the seat of Barwon.
